Fire ant infestation hikes county man hour, crop, equipment losses

by JAKE JACOB

Fire ants in Hancock County are becoming an increasing problem, according to John Smith, county agent. Smith made the statement following the filing of a petition by Jim Buck Ross, chairman, Mississippi Authority for the Control of Fire Ants, calling on the Environmental Protection Agency for emergency exemption from the pesticide registration provisions of the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, calling for a ban on the use of mirex, a non-biodegradable ant bait.

Evidence of the ant population hike, apart from obvious showings, is in increased damage to farming equipment, and climbing livestock losses, Smith explained.

He said aerial spraying of mirex is probably the best method of control, a method denied to Hancock County due to the preponderance of streams and major waterways.

The state legislature has now voted to cease making mirex at the end of this month, hoping instead to be permitted to use ferriamicide, a chemically developed biodegradable bait.

The petition, Ross says, is being filed as a measure "taken in order to meet the threat the imported fire ant poses to people's health and the economy of Mississippi."

Ross said this week, "It is not possible to predict the destructiveness of the imported fire ant in Mississippi when mirex can no longer be used after June 30, 1978."

"If the emergency exemption is approved, it will allow for the use of ferriamicide in the imported fire ant program."

To substantiate the need for fire ant spread control, Ross had previously requested the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service to conduct a survey to establish economic losses caused by fire ants.

It was this survey that involved Smith and county agents throughout the state. Ten persons interviewed in each of the 72 infested counties, representing one and one half percent of the farmers in Mississippi, established the extent of real dollar losses.

Survey results showed: $10,568 spent on the treatment of stings and sting-related problems; $41,076 damage to agricultural equipment; $119,520 in crop and livestock losses; loss of 5,321 man hours due to stings or treatment of stings.

"A control program must be continued in 1978.

"If Ferriamicide, a chemically developed biodegradable bait, can be used the problems associated with this pest in the highly infested areas can be minimized and the spread to non-infested areas involving additional states can be greatly reduced," Ross said.

He said approval of the application will enable further research directed toward finding safe and practical means of effectively controlling the imported fire ant without undue harm to the environment and ultimately produce a completely new insecticide that excludes mirex.

Election likely end February

History made, woman appointed county tax assessor-collector

by JAKE JACOB

Eying Feb. 11 and 25 as possible first and second primary dates, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors on Monday shied away from taking definite action towards setting an election date to fill the expiring tenure of political veteran George Heitzmann, the county's tax assessor and collector.

Heitzmann submitted his resignation to the board last month, citing personal reasons for his wanting to step down after 43 years in the courthouse.

"Supervisors had declined to accept the resignation prior to Monday's session, but at that time did so with regret."

The resignation is effective Dec. 31.

Sam Favre, board attorney, said the special election to fill the unexpired term of Heitzmann's office, must be held within 60 days. Until such times the supervisors must appoint an interim tax assessor and collector to serve until the elected official is sworn in by the chancery clerk, John D. Rutherford, Jr.

Supervisors, on a unanimous vote, appointed Mrs. Margaret Dubisson Heitzmann to the position of interim tax department chief, a move designed to keep the present office holder actively in contention while also eliminating the necessity of having to reprint checks, receipts, and other office stationary to carry a new name.

Mrs. Heitzmann, a graduate legal secretary, in accepting the appointment also added her name to the county record books by becoming the first woman to serve in that capacity. Prior to Heitzmann being first elected as tax assessor and collector in 1971, his office was split with the sheriff who also served as tax collector.

Henry Otis, circuit court clerk, called on supervisors asking them for 35 or 36 days notice for the election to permit a complete posting of notices at all precinct locations at least 30 days ahead of time.

Supervisors declined to have Mrs. Heitzmann sworn in that day, reserving the event for Jan. 2, the day after New Year.

Their first meeting of the year however will be 9 a.m., Tuesday, Jan. 3.

Heitzmann's resignation comes after 43 years and two months of service in

Bay developer's performance bond set at $55,000

Bay City Council on Tuesday voted to accept the recommendations of their planning and zoning commission even though they included a variance in favor of a Bay St. Louis developer.

The vote passed with Councilman Fred Wagner abstaining on the basis that the development is, according to his interpretation of the city's ordinance, far ahead of the limits imposed upon it by the city.

The conflict of opinion centered on the subdivision development ordinance passed by the city in 1964.

According to Westwood developer Wilson W. Webre, the ordinance calls for him to first put in his water and sewer, then complete the hard surface of the road, then apply for a final certificate of acceptance by the city.

Wagner on the other hand held the ordinance called for the developer to submit his preliminary plan, which Webre had done and had approved by

Night raid on Kiln residence

nets two on marijuana charges

A young Kiln couple has been charged with possession of marijuana with intent to distribute following a Saturday night raid on their residence by Hancock County sheriff's deputies.

Gerald P. Mauffrey, 30, of P.O. Box 8, Kiln, and his wife Karen K. Mauffrey, 19, were charged in addition with possession of paraphernalia, as well as growing and cultivating marijuana, deputies reported.

Chief Deputy Ronnie Peterson of Sheriff Sylvan Ladner's office said officers obtained a search warrant on the Mauffrey residence based on information supplied by an informant.

Following an extensive search of the residence about 7 p.m. Saturday, Peterson said, officers turned up some 10 pounds of marijuana in three kilogram "bricks," 10 lbs. and a three to four-foot live marijuana plant found near the Christmas tree.

Also confiscated in the raid, authorized by Beat Four Justice Court Judge Joe Dobson, were two scales as well as pipes and papers, according to the officers.

Peterson said eight foil-wrapped packages of a "gummy substance" were found in the residence. The deputy said the packages, suspected of being hashish or some form of opium, were turned over to the State Police crime laboratory for analysis.

Mauffrey was released Tuesday under a $75,000 property bond set by

The award will be given to the Mobile Medic service area which includes all of Hancock County and the western two-thirds of Harrison County.

Fleischmann Award winners will receive a plaque and cash award, Rester said, and a permanent plaque bearing names of all winners will be kept at Mobile Medic headquarters.

THE OLE

PASTOR
SAYS...

DID YOU EVER HEAR the story of the Happy Little Train?

Once upon a time there was a happy little train. He had such a good time as he raced down the tracks. He would blow his whistle at all his friends along the way - the horses in the fields, the ducks on the ponds, the birds in the air. But then he noticed something; The horses could run anywhere they wanted to.
The birds could fly anywhere
they wished - or so it seemed.
But he had to stay on his tracks.

Now he was very unhappy.
"How can I get off my tracks?" he wondered. Then he thought of a way. At the curve where he always had to slow down he would speed up instead. So the next day he began to pick up speed several miles before the curve and when he got there, he went right off the tracks! "I'm free!" he shouted as he left those tracks that would only let him go on one path. He plowed through the soft earth!
"How different," he thought.
But suddenly he came to a stop! He churned his wheels!
He blew his whistle! He got up steam! But he didn't move an inch! "I'm not free!" he cried. "I'm stuck!" A horse came trotting over to see the little train. "You silly train," he said. "I can't go under water or in the air or roll down the train tracks. We are only free when we stay where we are suppose to be."

All boys and girls - and older folk too, for that matter, want to be free. They think they would be very happy if they were free from the rules and discipline of parents or from school work - or other responsibilities - or even from the rules of authority, morals and decorum. So many think they would be happy if they could get away from God's laws.

So, everyone is, in a way,
like the little train. They jump off the track that leads them to,
God and true happiness and assurance, and now they are stuck. Now they are not free.

"There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Prov. 14:12). Jesus said: "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free... If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed" (John 8:32, 36).

You can't serve two masters and be free. You can't have it both ways - especially when they are opposites in character and purpose. You can't walk with God and run with the devil! Putting it another way: you can't have your cake and eat it too!

Freedom involves responsibility! - L.S. Walker

Tax assessor...

the county courthouse.

A St. Stanislaus College honors student, Class of '34, Heitzmann became a deputy tax collector that year under Sheriff Claude Monti at a salary of $50 per month. Assessments throughout the county stood at $12 million and there were about 2500 parcels of land on the tax rolls.

Today, Hancock County has assessments in the neighborhood of $43 million, and the assessor-collector makes $19,000 a year.

Elected for three terms as tax assessor, and two terms as assessor and collector - following a change in the law in 1971, Heitzmann's unbroken service to the county was brought about by his being rejected to serve in the U.S. Armed Forces during World War II due to the loss of an eye at 14.

During the war years however, Heitzmann served actively in the Civil Defense, wherein he is still a member, and was supervising clerk of the Selective Service Commission (SSC) for the Coastal area. To maintain his active "Courtroom" status he worked in the evenings in the Chancery Clerk's office.

His work with the SSC was recognized by President of the United States Harry S. Truman, in a letter of commendation. Citations also came from General Lewis B. Hershey, and Colonel of Field Artillery Howard C. Bowman, commanding officer, Headquarters Mississippi Military District, Eighth Army.

Previously active in Knights of Columbus, third and fourth degree, for whom he travelled extensively over 22 years, other citations received include those from the Older American Area-wide Model Program, the International Association of Assessors and Appraisers, the State Association of Tax Commissioners, the National Association of Review Assessors - wherein he is a Certified Review Appraiser, and the Mississippi Assessors and Collectors Association.

A colonel on the staff of three Mississippi Governors, including Gov. Cliff Finch, he is married to the former Margaret Dubuisson. The couple, who reside in Bay St. Louis, have three children, Robert, Michael, and Marilyn, and eight grandchildren.

A former member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church Council, and a member of OLG church "as long as he can remember..." he is a former member of the OLG Usher Society and SSC Sidelines Club.

A member of the Hancock County Farm Bureau and State Cattlemen's Association, he was active for many years in the Hancock Gun and Rod Club.

Arrest of Gulfport juvenile spares Hancock from feared cat burglar

Fears the dreaded "cat burglar" would extend his area of operation into Hancock County to escape intensive police searches, apparently have been allayed with the arrest of a 17-year-old juvenile in Gulfport.

The Mississippi Coast Crime Commission had offered a $250 reward for information leading to the cat burglar's arrest, and a complaint by David Sweet of 4510 Harrison Ave., Gulfport, at 2:30 a.m. Saturday may earn him the prize.

Gulfport Police Chief Larkin Smith said the youth, identity withheld because of age, was apprehended following a series of events triggered by Sweet's call to the police.

Sweet reported he was awakened in the middle of the night by creaking of the floor in his house. When he arose to investigate, he startled a long-haired youth who immediately fled from the house.

After police units sealed off Sweet's Bayou View neighborhood, they discovered a parked automobile which Smith said "did not belong there."

An officer participating in the manhunt recognized the vehicle and knew the identity of its owner, which resulted in the arrest of the juvenile at the residence of the owner.

The police chief said Sweet identified the suspect as the youth who fled from the Bayou View residence.

The alleged cat burglar was found to be in possession of personal property taken in a burglary hours earlier Saturday night at the residence of attorney Neil White of 30 45th St., police said.

Armed with a search warrant, police then went through the youth's residence where they reportedly found evidence linking him to cat burglaries in the College Park area three months ago.

A black hat bearing a yellow "CAT" insignia of a type worn in other cat burglaries was also found at the residence.

The suspect is being held at the Harrison County Detention Center pending a certification hearing on whether he should stand trial as an adult.

Smith said the youth may face charges in as many as 30 Gulfport burglaries, as well as further charges from the Harrison County sheriff's office in connection with offenses in the past.

Officers said a break-in at the county residence of District Attorney Albert Nacaise has been attributed to the cat burglar.

John C. Montgomery, executive director of the crime commission, said the MCCC posted its reward because the type of crimes perpetrated by the alleged cat burglar generate fear in the community.

The crime commission director noted that such fears cause people to keep firearms at their bedside, thus greatly heightening the possibility of the accidental shooting of innocent persons. Smith said the methods of operation in the break-ins to which the suspect has been directly linked match the alleged cat burglaries.

The burglar has been credited with as many as 60 burglaries where homes were entered as occupants slept, only money was taken, and empty wallets and purses were found on porches, patios and adjacent driveways.

efforts," Rester said.

The youth was employed as an emergency medical technician and was one of the first persons on the Mississippi Coast to be nationally certified in the profession, Rester noted.

Fleischmann joined Mobile Medic at its inception in 1974.

"I'm happy this award is in honor of Hank," said his mother, Mrs. Laura Fleischmann, "and I'm also delighted with this well-deserved public recognition of the tremendous job performed by young Mobile Medic employees."

Mrs. Fleischmann said she will attend the award ceremonies in Gulfport Friday.

Fire ants...

The pesticide for which exemption is being sought, ferriamicide, is made up of 85 percent corn cob grit; 13.05 percent soybean oil; 1.7 percent amine (Humco T1220D); two percent ferrous chloride hexahydrate; .05 percent mirex.

If approved for use, ferriamicide will be applied at the rate of one pound of bait per acre, or .227 grams of mirex per acre.

"It is anticipated that each of the other eight infested states will make a similar application for the use of ferriamicide in 1978."

"The Mississippi Authority for the Control of Fire Ants will eagerly aid the other states in their efforts," Ross said. Questioned on equipment damage causes by fire ants, Smith said the impact and instant spread of grit and dirt through the machinery, caused by cutter blades slicing through an ant pile, literally "tears up" the equipment.

Most livestock losses, Smith explained, were to new born calves. Crop losses were caused in a variety of ways with heavily infested fields unable to support significant crops in the vicinity of ant mounds.

The county agent said bags of mirex are still available to the home owner and can be obtained free of charge from his office, adding, "People with acreage or farms can get larger amounts but must agree to spread it almost right away."

Livestock building extension planned for county fairgrounds

The Hancock County Fair and Livestock Association on Monday appealed to the county supervisors for a local and private bill to permit their upping the present bond sales limit from $75 to $150,000.

Louis Breaux, association president made the request saying the funds thus realized would be utilized to build an extension to the exhibition building and provide other needed facilities.

Breaux said no additional millage will be required to retire any bonds, the non-profit association receiving some quarter mill in fiscal 1977-78.

Supervisors had no objection to the proposal, agreeing that it would simplify matters for the association whose fairground events are enough to maintain the property and pay expenses but insufficient for capital improvements.

The added bond retirement income would result from the continually increasing assessments within the county.

County Clerk John D. Rutherford, Jr., expressed the only note of caution saying he was not against the proposal but wished to make very sure existing millage would continue to retire the current obligation as well as cover repayment of additional bond sales.

Switching to other matters, supervisors were told by the planning commission that their new building inspector, Mike Ladner, has resigned to accept a position with a new county industry. Advertising has begun to find a new inspector prior to the resignation becoming effective Dec. 31.

Wilson W. Wehre, port director, sought and obtained approval permitting Bergeron Industries, Inc., to assume the lease purchase agreement formerly held by Wayne C. Hockett Sandblasting and Painting Company on 45 acres of Lot 5 at Port Beinville Industrial Park. This lot was formerly owned by and was the site of Jackson Landing Shipyard, Inc.

Bergeron's executive vice president, William T. Bergeron following his introduction to the supervisors, expressed the hope that his company could become operational at Port Beinville by the end of January, 1978.

Bergeron cited his company as being "people oriented," and said that the vast majority of employees will be locally recruited.

He told the supervisors his company planned the immediate investment of between one quarter and one half a million dollars in Port Beinville and that in the neighborhood of 40 to 50 local hires would be required at start-up.

Here, he said, they need would be for welders and shipfitters.

Bergeron told the supervisors he "was very enthusiastic," and hoped the company and the county could build a long lasting relationship.

Plans call for construction of ways and docks at Port Beinville, the company having already begun laying groundwork required for development of the center into a major repair base as well as building yard.

He said the name of the Mississippi company is Bergeron Industries, Inc., and it will currently be operating out of the old Jackson Landing offices on site.

In further matters supervisors: Instructed Sheriff Sylvan Ladner to first obtain a court order before advertising confiscated car for sale. The car was originally held as evidence in a murder and armed robbery trial. The county has already invested some $380 in the unit in storage fees, it having been at one time abandoned in New Orleans, and now seeks to recoup its money.

Approved advertising for bids on a used Beat 5 grader.

Bay developer

the city, then engage engineers, arrange financing, obtain estimates, and the like, coming back to the city for acceptance of the final plan before commencement of land, street, and lot preparation.

J. Alvin Triche, Jr., chairman, city planning and zoning commission, said his commission's resolution on the Westwood subdivision asked the city to accept final plans for the subdivision but also to require council to request a performance bond in an amount sufficient to guarantee completion to specification.

Council ultimately adopted the resolution, asking Westwood to post with the city clerk a performance bond in the amount of at least $55,000.

Triche indicated the action would permit the developer to firm up his financing, conduct advance sales of lots to building contractors, and generally bring the subdivision into reality.

Both Triche and Wehre, who also serves on the zoning commission, said they would be bringing recommendations for change to council on the seemingly conflicting ordinance.

Council also gave green light to extending the sewer system some 1200 feet on Hancock Ave. to accommodate the requirements of three new restaurants scheduled to open their doors in the near future.

Cost of the engineering plans involved was given as $2100, with a $210 per day inspection fee.

Mayor Larry Bennett said the city crew was capable of performing the installation under proper supervision, a factor that reduced the entire cost to some $11,000. The line, when complete, will run from the vicinity of the new Pizza Hut to the lift station at the Premier gas station.

Again on a split vote, council agreed to officially request transfer of excess Economic Development Administration funds due the city on their recent sewer project to fund the overpass on US-90 and Dunbar.

Councilman Wagner was joined in his 'nay' vote by Councilman Peter Benvenuti, both claiming it was the council's original intent to utilize the sewer money for that purpose and any excess over bid requirement should have been used to expand the system.

Mayor Larry Bennett said the city fathers were elected to protect lives in the city and if the overpass saved one child's life it was well worth while.

He said the amount involved $45,000, would not extend the sewer system very far.

In a final matter council agreed to eliminate one of the two open drains now crossing Coast Electric property but serving the water run-off on Main Street.

To accomplish the task approval was given to change order number two, in the amount of $1616.32, 30 percent of which would be paid by the city in-kind contributions and the balance by the state highway department.

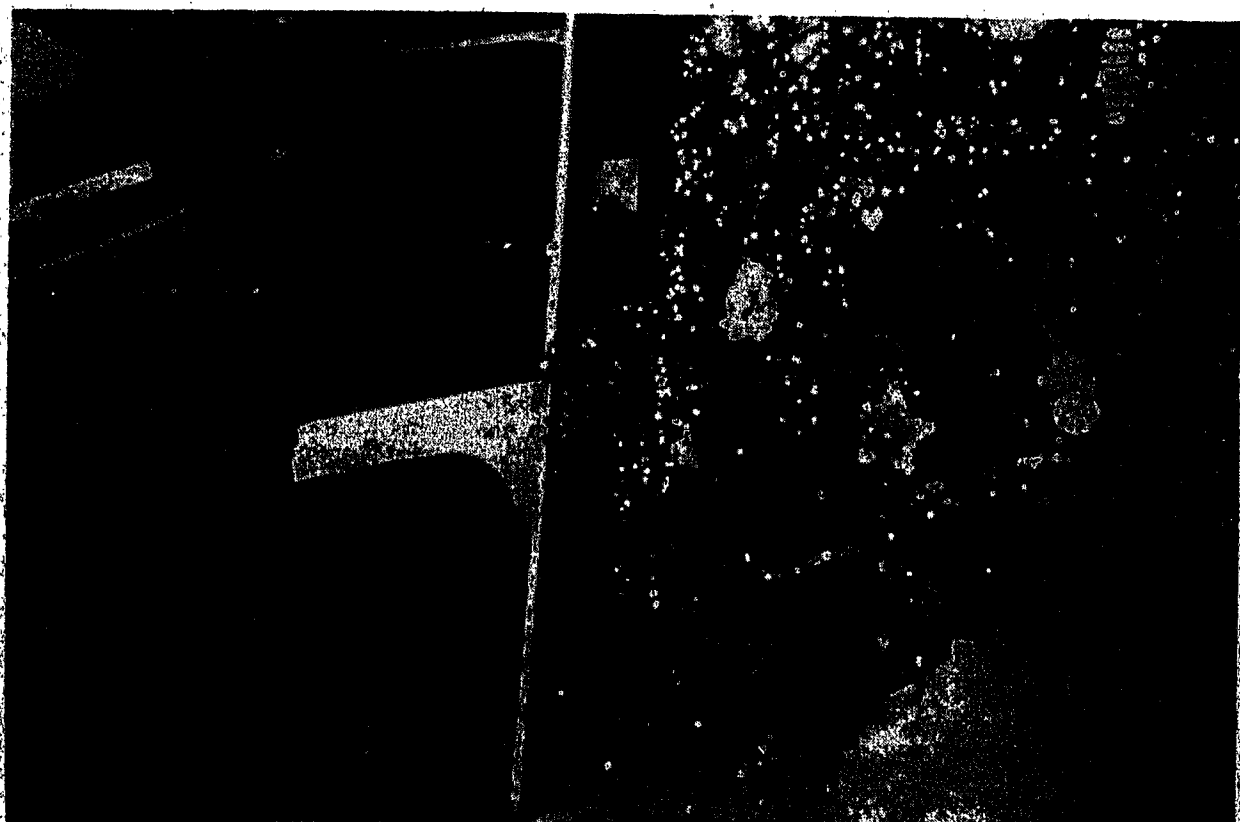

In 1874, Pierre Janssen a French pioneer of solar physics and of photography, made the first film recording of the transit of Venus across the sun.

Peace on Earth goodwill to men

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men. St. Luke ii. 1.

$20 auto tag??

Editor Sea Coast Echo
Let's all get on the Rep. Sonny Meredith, of Greenville, bandwagon and remind our Governor of all the promises "of equalization," he made to the "poor" people of our great state when he trod over it not too long ago, with his 50-cent lunch bucket in his hand as a symbol of humility; a time when he needed "all" our help.

There can be only "one" class of people in his mind now for him to come up with such an act of discrimination as a $20 car tag. It is plain to see that this tax give away is not going to help the poor who are still driving $500 to $1,000 jalopies.

Yes, I am in favor of tax cuts, I am in favor of cost of living reductions. I am in favor of cost of labor reductions. Yes, I am in favor of a person getting fair pay for what he or she does. I am also in favor of that same person putting in a 60 minute hour instead of the 25 to 45 minutes which is the common work hour today.

I am in favor of all business making a profit, the only means of staying in operation, but I am not in favor of our big business become government defying conglomerates which are dictating to and taking over our government faster than most of us can imagine.

I am also in favor of some sort of eradication in reference to some of the unfit both elected and appointed in all walks of our livelihood that we read about in newspapers, hear and see on TV and radio every day.

It is time we initiate equal justice in our justice department. It is time that our elite society thieves be treated like the lowly cigarette thief. Our socially prominent thief of today, and apparently there are many, remind me of a bunch of school boys way back when.

Remember when, if we were caught in mischief and we would not or were afraid to "sneak", and the whole class was punished until the culprit was identified, and generally the punishment was short lived?

Well all the wrong doers or honorable crooks of today remind me of those school boys and I do believe that if first hand they be introduced to the Parchman Rock Pile, we would in no time short find out who is telling the truth and get a conviction. As our court of law is today all these "school boys" do is stand up and call each other damn lies at the tax payers expense, but no guilty verdict.

Imagine all this just to say I am not in favor of a $20 car tag?

Why? Prejudice? No not hardly. I have just disposed of my old car with a $23.67 tag on it and the one I have now will cost nearly $100 come next December.

Equalization? Yes.

Christmas message

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) will hold their first annual New Year's Eve dance on Sat., Dec. 31, 1977 at 9:00 p.m. at the chapel on the corner of McLaurin St. and Nicholson Ave. Dress will be Sunday Dress. Ages 14 and over are invited.

The Editor
Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir,

Mormon leaders today urged the people of the world to not overlook the true meaning of Christmas as they prepare for the traditionally festive holiday.

In their annual Christmas message, the First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints stressed that the best way to observe Christmas properly is to live according to the commandments of the Savior.

The message, issued by President Spencer W. Kimball and his two counselors, Presidents N. Eldon Tanner and Marion G. Romney, is as follows:

"Today people around the world are preparing for Christmas. Hopefully, all are preparing to celebrate on that special day the birth in a Bethlehem manger of the Prince of Peace, the Messiah, the Redeemer of the World - Jesus the Christ.

Beginning with Adam, prophets told of the coming of the Redeemer. Centuries before the birth of the Christ child, the prophets Isaiah and Nephi proclaimed that Jesus would be born of a virgin. Micah and Alma predicted the place of His birth. Other prophets such as Daniel and Samuel the Lamanite described further details of his earthly ministry. Hosea foretold His sojourn into Egypt.

The ancient prophets, before the birth of Jesus, told of the glories of His atonement, the miracle of His resurrection for all mankind and for eternal life for those who merit that "greatest of all gifts."

May this be a joyful season of preparation for all mankind.

How the 'twinkle' came to Christmas

By JOE PILET,
CHAIRMAN
Gulfcoast Chapter
DAR Americanism
and Citizenship

Recently our Hancock County Bay and Waveland Communities participated in the joyous custom of Christmas Tree Lightings. We are indebted to our city officials, Board of Supervisors, and many persons serving on various committees who made these and other splendid festivities the happy occasions they were.

Our Gulf coast area sparkles with brightly colored electrically lit decorations putting us all in the holiday mood. Most of us are inclined to take "for granted" these activities. After all, electrically lighted Christmas trees have been known in our country for 95 years! It all started on New Year's Eve in the year 1879 when the public was invited to Menlo Park, New Jersey to see a demonstration of light bulbs invented by Thomas Alva Edison in October of that year. Three years later (1882) the world's first electrically lighted Christmas tree was decorated in the home of Edward Johnson in New York City and New York papers devoted considerable space to reporting the event!

The World's First Electrically lighted Christmas tree had 80 lights, the colors

DRILLING ACTIVITY--in Hancock County's Waveland Gas Field continues to increase as evidenced by operations such as this on the Stennis International Airport Road. Industry reports have recently described the Waveland Gas Field as "rapidly expanding," with oil as well as gas completions being made. (Staff photo-Edgar Perez)

Health Tip From AMA

LOSING EXTRA POUNDS

There's no doubt about it. Many of us are too fat.

And almost everyone who is too fat would like to slim down to average size for his height and build. Many women would like to be on the skinny side.

"The American Medical Association points out that most physicians consider obesity an important factor in personal health. It is common. It is associated with increased sickness and death rates, notably in respect to heart, circulatory, kidney and metabolic disorders as well as surgical and obstetrical complications.

Obesity can be successfully treated to help control the associated medical conditions. The evidence for generally adverse health effects from obesity seems too massive and too consistent to ignore.

Okay. So we need to lose weight. It should be simple. Everyone knows that all it takes is to cut down on the calories. Unfortunately, it usually isn't simple. Taking fewer calories than are needed seems to be within the theoretical capability of most of us. Yet results suggest that this is difficult and often not achieved. Long-term observations indicate poor success for most dieters.

An important factor in overweight is psychological. Psychological factors may help cause overweight, or help to maintain it. Seldom is psychiatric consultation required. The family doctor, the internist, the pediatrician usually can provide suitable guidance and support as part of the weight reduction program. The physician's aim is to prod and reinforce our will to lose weight, to help us be so determined to trim off excess pounds that we will stick to the reducing regime.

The physician may prescribe drugs at first, as a crutch to help us get started. These can reduce the appetite, promote a feeling of well being, add bulk in the stomach, eliminate excess fluids. They can, at best, offer only temporary help. They postpone the day when facts must be faced, when we finally make up our minds that we must change our eating habits to keep our weight under control.

REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

By CLIFF FINCH

When I first took office, I set one of the six major goals of this administration as to help our people who cannot help themselves.

Now, I'm proud to announce that we will begin very shortly, at absolutely no cost to the taxpayers of Miss., a sweeping new program that not only will provide direct assistance to the elderly and needy people of Mississippi, but will create some 400 new jobs and serve as a job training program at the same time.

We are calling this program - which represents a direct helping hand to the people - Our Family Assistance Aide Program. A total of $5.2 million - and I again emphasize that this is all federal money - will be spent on this program. The purposes of this program are our-fold:

1. To keep our families together;
2. To prevent the institutionalization of our elderly, which costs the State of Mississippi $635 per person per month;
3. To assist needy households where one member of the family could work if freed from daily household responsibilities; and
4. To provide a training program similar to other programs which have resulted in 50 percent of all previously unemployed trainees gaining jobs in the private sector once their training was completed.

Most of the people working in this program will be homemakers and social workers who will go directly into the homes of the needy, elderly, and anyone else who needs a helping hand in any way.

Basically, this program puts people in every county of Miss. whose sole responsibility will be to help everyone who cannot help themselves. They will be public servants in the very best sense of the word.

This assistance could come through such tasks as the following:

1. Assume the duties of an absent homemaker during a family crisis;
2. Help the elderly remain self-sufficient within their homes without institutionalization;
3. Provide companionship and social contact for lonely individuals;
4. Substitute for foster parents in their absence;
5. Teach child care, nutrition, hygiene, home management and self health care;
6. Work in homes where the courts determine there is evidence of child abuse or neglect;
7. Perform general housekeeping duties;
8. Transport clients for necessary medical attention and handling of their personal business;
9. Perform minor medical services;
10. Advise the people of all aid available to them; and
11. Perform any other duty that will help others who need help.

The real uniqueness of this program is that - for the first time in the history of the State of Mississippi - a needy person, whether they be elderly, poor or whatever - will have a designated person in his or her community to contact and receive immediate assistance from that person, regardless of the problem. It is indeed a personal helping hand program, and I've never been prouder of anything we've done in this administration.

The People's Business

TOWARD BETTER EDUCATION

For Mississippi to continue to grow economically, our people must have an adequate education. Without a qualified pool of potential workers, industry will either import workers or go elsewhere.

Problems in education have plagued Mississippi for years. As a result, the residents of this state are still largely under-educated.

Mississippi needs an organized effort to upgrade our educational system. The Mississippi Economic Council, which has long been involved in the field of education, has many recommendations which could serve as a firm foundation for improving education.

Among MEC recommendations are: -Abolition of the present ex officio State Board of Education, replacing it with an expanded, appointed, lay board.

-Fiscal independence for all school districts.

-Creation of one form of school district - with uniform administrative and financial procedures - to replace the present four types of districts.

-Sound financing of the state's Minimum Foundation Program.

-Improved management of 16th Section school lands.

-Maintenance of a string vocational-technical education system, responsive to the needs of industry.

-Establishment of a system of public school kindergartens.

If these goals can be accomplished, we will be taking a great step forward - a step which will help assure that all Mississippians can have an adequate education.

Long Beach argues its way to double trophies at USM-H

Long Beach High School's debate team captured two first-place trophies in the annual University of Southern Mississippi Debate Tournament in Hattiesburg this month.

Scott Stiffler and Billy Wedgeworth scored four wins in the affirmative division, and Dennis Dickenson and Joe Gammel were 4-0 winners in the negative division.

The two teams from Long Beach were the only ones to go undefeated throughout the four rounds of competition.

The team's coach, Ms. Helen Watts, has been named "coach of the year" in Mississippi high school debate circles.

Other team members participating in the Hattiesburg tournament include Karl Lion, Mary Lin Sandoz, Kelly Caulderill, Deidra McGlowen, all juniors.

Long Beach's next tournament will be at Gulfport High School Sunday, Jan. 8.

Sales tax transfer could aid highways

The president of the Mississippi Economic Council has called for transfer of motor fuel sales taxes from the state's general fund to the state's ailing highway program.

MEC President Howard Lewis of Greenwood said the corridor highway system "could be given a strong shot in the arm by transferring the funds to construction and maintenance programs.

"During the past year, the sales tax on gasoline raised some $45 million in tax revenues. Instead of helping build our transportation system, most of it went to the general fund."

From that $45 million, Lewis said, allocations for the cities, the public school building fund, and the state aid road program were subtracted. The amount going to the general fund was some $36 million.

"We have an ambitious road program under way. Much money has already been invested. If we are to continue it, this seems like a logical route to complete it," said Lewis.

In 1972, the Mississippi Legislature approved a massive program aimed at providing the entire state with modern highways, with an estimated price tag of $600 million. However, when the price of gas rose dramatically in 1973 and 1974, gas sales dropped off, causing excise tax receipts to fall short of the amount needed to fully fund the corridor program.

"While work is still continuing, it won't be long before the program is completely bogged down due to lack of finances," said Lewis. "Action is necessary if we want to complete the system."

THOUGHT FOR A DAY
A thought for the day from the library of Father Canisius Hayes, pastor St. Ann's Parish:

"There are no shadows on the world at noon - there are no shadows on the heart when love is near - and yet when daylight fades toward the dusk - the shadows often lengthen - and sometimes sadness comes up from the place of remembering - for sadness is but a shadow - a shadow that is fashioned from love's bright sunlight shining upon a treasured memory -

And in remembering that could be no shadows if there had not been light - I ask myself - could spring's fresh beauty lift your heart as high had not dark branches etched the winter sky.
May God be gracious to each lonely one who walks in silence toward the setting sun." - Abbott

Phys Ed students learn techniques

Students in a physical education class at The University of Mississippi could run away from college to join a three-ring circus.

Stiltwalking, juggling, unicycle riding and a host of other "Big Top" activities are mastered by students in training to be physical education teachers in elementary schools.

Stunts acquired in the class, Elementary School Activities, are not necessarily taught later to youngsters in elementary school. Purpose of the class is to cultivate patience in future teachers by having them perform skills they have never learned before.

"We make our students learn a new skill, just as first grader has to, to help the future teachers understand and be patient with children who are learning," explained

Dr. Quentin A. Christian, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation at Ole Miss.

"The skills that are taught in this class are not difficult, but they are unusual," he said. "Students don't go through school learning these activities, and for that reason, we have chosen them to emphasize the need for understanding."

Students in the elementary school activities class at Ole Miss make much of their own equipment for such stunts as stiltwalking, juggling and ring toss. Other activities for the course include mastery of hula hoops, bean bag skills, paper folding and string figure making.

"Juggling is not a skill students would use every day," smiled Dr. Christian. "But it involves hand-eye coordination, and is very simple with practice." Jugglers in the class prove their dexterity by tossing Indian clubs, balls or quoits, section of hose joined together.

"Unicycle riding is more difficult, but it is a skill that improves the sense of balance," he continued.

Dr. Christian said that a surprising number of college students have never learned to jump rope. Therefore, one of the class activities is "double dutch," jump two ropes at the same time.

FmHA names Lee to management course in D.C.

Kenneth W. Lee of Columbia, has been selected to participate in a work and study program of public financial management conducted by American University of Washington, D.C., for the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), a rural credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Before transferring to Washington, Lee was FmHA County Supervisor in Bay St. Louis, for two years. He previously had served as Assistant County Supervisor in New Augusta.

Lee attended Pearl River Valley Junior College and graduated from Mississippi State University in 1970. He is active in civic organizations serving as a scout master for the Boys Scouts of America and as president of the local Jaycees chapter in 1973-74. He also was named one of the Outstanding Young Men of America by the Jaycees in 1977.

Chosen from applicants throughout the United States, Lee will assume a full-time position in FmHA's Washington Office and live in the area while attending classes at the University. The course of study requires two years to complete.

Lee now resides in Woodbridge, Virginia, with his wife, Cheryl.

Putting up your own CB or TV antenna may save you money, but it could cost you your life if you are not careful. Before you begin installing your mast and antenna, look up and make certain there isn't a power line near by. Whether working on the ground or on the roof, keep away from power lines. It's easy to lose control of a long swaying mast and antenna. Be certain you are far enough away so that if it falls, either during or after installation, it can't possibly contact power lines.

"Look up 'n' look out"—that's CB talk for safety! You could save your own life.

Two Keesler choirs to sing

Two Keesler AFB choral groups will be featured in a special half-hour program Dec. 24 at 1:30 p.m. on WLOX television, Biloxi.

The Keesler Male Chorus and the Keesler Skylarks will present a program of Christmas carols.

The Male Chorus, directed by Major Jack Moelmann, is composed of volunteer airmen who are currently stationed at the base.

The Skylarks group is composed of 30 women who are military wives, in the service, retirees, or otherwise connected with the base. Captain David Rackley is director.

ADVERTISEMENT Cheesecake to Delight Peanut Lovers

Real devotees of both cheesecake and peanuts are fiercely loyal to their favorite food. Now both camps can unite, and rejoice. Here's a peanutty cheesecake for all seasons—with plenty of Southern charm. Georgia Prize Peanut Cheesecake makes an attractive centerpiece for your party table, too, until guests gobble it down! It's also delightfully quick and simple to prepare because you start with precooked, preblended sweetened condensed milk—you don't even have to turn on your oven. Sweetened condensed milk provides a creamy base, complementing that mellow peanut flavor, and thickens with lemon juice giving smooth, firm texture. This rich yet delicate treat is sure to be a hit during the holidays, and all year long.

GEORGIA PRIZE PEANUT CHEESECAKE (Makes one 9-inch cake)

1/3 cup butter or margarine
1 cup graham cracker crumbs
1/4 cup finely chopped dry roasted peanuts
12 ounces cream cheese, softened
2/3 cup creamy peanut butter
1 (14 oz.) can Eagle® Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk
1/3 cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 (4 1/2 oz.) container frozen non-dairy whipped topping, thawed

In small saucepan, melt butter; stir in crumbs and peanuts. Reserving 2 tablespoons for garnish, press on bottom of 9-inch spring form pan; chill while preparing filling. In large mixer bowl, beat cream cheese and peanut butter until fluffy; add sweetened condensed milk and beat until smooth. Stir in lemon juice and vanilla; fold in whipped topping. Turn into prepared pan and garnish with reserved crumbs. Chill 2 to 3 hours. Refrigerate any leftovers.

Mrs. James Evans' 90th birthday marked at party

Mrs. James Evans recently celebrated her 90th birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Evans, Jr.

Following the singing of "happy birthday" by her family, all of whom were present, and friends, she was presented with an orchid corsage by her grandchildren, Tom, Cathy, and Scott, who also lit the 90 candles on her birthday cake.

Each one of the guests, family and friend, brought a signed birthday card to commemorate the event.

Mrs. Evans successfully extinguished all the birthday cake candles with the aid of her granddaughter, Samantha Pitcairn.

Mrs. William R. Pitcairn, Jr., cut the cake and her daughter, Valda Pitcairn, served the guests.

Miss Cathy Evans presided at the tea service while Mrs. William R. Pitcairn, III, served punch.

On behalf of all personnel at the Senior Citizens Center in Bay St. Louis we extend Holiday Greetings to everyone. To all the city officials of Bay St. Louis, Waveland, Hancock County officials, the United Way, all the merchants of Hancock County, and to all the residents of Hancock County who throughout the year that have helped to make our Senior Citizens Center one of the most successful in the state. We thank you and may you all have a happy and prosperous New Year.

RECREATION

One Hundred and fifty Senior Citizens had an enjoyable afternoon at the Seniors Christmas party at the American Legion Hall in Bay St. Louis on Monday, Dec. 19th from 1:00 to 3:00 P.M. It was a day they will not forget. The Christmas party, one of the big events presented throughout the year was an entertaining one.

The Moran Family, renowned Gospel Singers and instrumentalists presented a variety of songs from Gospel to the Saints Go Marching in that pleased everyone. When they played the Saints Go Marching In, they had most of the Seniors marching around the hall, singing and whistling to this lively song.

Following the Moran Gospel Singers Fred Horn led the Seniors in the singing of Christmas Carols, accompanied by our versatile pianist, singer and actor, on the piano, Mr. Louis Burghard. The Seniors are to be congratulated for the singing of Christmas Carols with gusto.

Next in the line was the three door prizes. First door prize contributed by Mayor Bennett and Mrs. Bennett was a fruit basket, won by Agnes Leroy, quilting class instructor. Second prize was a Ceramic Christmas Tree, contributed by Rose Everard, Ceramic co-instructor, won by Pat Schott. Third prize, a live Christmas tree, contributed by Colonel DeBuys, Owner of Santos Forest. Winner of the quilting contribution was Esther Oschman.

The Christmas party closed with Louis Burghard on the organ and Fred Horn on the drums playing everything from waltzes, polkas, and swing. Who said our Seniors can't jitterbug.

When Louis and Fred played in the Mood, Darktown Strutters Ball and other swing tunes, one would say, "Man! dig those swinging Seniors!" It was a wonderful sight to see, all seniors, said, it was the best Christmas party they had attended this year.

To Ethel Dorman, Cecile Galivan, Georgianna Diebold, Julia Leddy, and Audrey Curet Thank You RSVP volunteers for helping with our Christmas party.

Refreshments consisted of Red Velvet Cake, Egg Nog and coffee. Thank you ladies for bearing with me, I misplaced the list with the cake bakers and servers last week. The ladies who baked the cakes were Esther Cuevas, Nina Garner, Eva Ruhr, Annie Sulzer, Juliette Cook, Anna Mae Rappolo and Anna Marsh. Servers were Audrey Curet, Julia Leddy, Ethel Dorman, Margaret May and Georgianna Diebold. My personal thanks to all of you for your wonderful assistance.

My personal thanks also to Theresa James, Renee Carter and Charles Johnson, RSVP Staff for the courtesies extended to me throughout the year.

PEARLINGTON

The Spirit of the Holiday season prevailed throughout the afternoon at the Community Center. The Senior Citizens Club held their Christmas Party on Wednesday, Dec. 14th at 12 noon. The Seniors enjoyed all the festivities. The tables were decorated with red and white table cloths, with a centerpiece on each table which was a small stuffed Santa Claus with a glittered pine cone on each side, plus twigs of holly under each pine cone. Refreshments consisted of egg salad, ham, roast beef, sandwiches, potato, chips, petit fours, punch and coffee. Entertainment was furnished by Fip Johnson and his versatile country and western orchestra.

Bert Courge, Supervisor of Beat 1, Theresa James, Director of Hancock County RSVP, and Yours Truly, representing the Senior Citizens Center in Bay St. Louis, complimented Irma Cuevas and the ladies for the beautiful decorations and refreshments.

Surprise of the afternoon was when Bert was invited by Fip Johnson to play the guitar with the orchestra. "Very good Bert!" Now we know where to get a guitarist when we need a musician at the Center. Fip Johnson and his orchestra played a group of Christmas songs and everyone joined with Fip in the singing of Christmas Carols, plus playing the seniors' favorite Western and Country tunes.

KILN

The Senior Citizens Club held their December Birthday Party and various types of games on Thursday, December the 12th, at 12 noon. Invocation was given by Leonard Rupp; Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was led by Legionnaire Fred Horn, who also sang the National Anthem.

The winners were Mabel Depreo, Verina Deschamp, Fred Horn, Lenora and Ulman Mauffray, Mabel Necaise, Emma Necaise, Ellen Peterson, Leonard Rupp, Mildred Bobinger and Rita Marti.

Seniors celebrating December birthdays are Mildred Bobinger, Mae Dedeaux, and Clara Ladner. All the Seniors wished them many happy returns of the day, plus singing Happy Birthday to the celebrants.

Congratulations to all the ladies for cooking a wonderful meal. Refreshments consisted of fried chicken, green beans, potato salad, cranberry souffle, rolls, home made cakes and punch.

and Fred Horn, recreation specialist, led the Seniors in the singing of Christmas carols. There were 40 Senior Citizens present. The Seniors from the Kiln area thank all the members of the VFW for their generosity. To all our friends who have been hospitalized we wish for you a speedy recovery.

THE DELTA OF THE NILE is much in the news this Christmas as the leaders of Egypt and Israel try to forge a peace agreement of some worth. In 1942 Egypt, then under King Farouk, was again in the news but this time because the German 'Afrika' Corps, led by the "Desert Fox" Field Marshall Erwin Rommel, was knocking at the door of the Suez Canal at a place called Alamein. British Field Marshall Bernard Law Montgomery defeated Rommel to begin the push that would eventually lead to Nazi defeat in North Africa. In Christmas of that same year, Henry E. Charnichael of Bay St. Louis, then an able seaman serving on board the merchant ship Louise Lykes out of New Orleans, took a much needed cargo to Port Said, the northern entrance to the Suez Canal. With time available, due to the necessity of the ship having to off load its cargo using limited equipment, several of the crew hired a taxi, went to Cairo, climbed on the back of camels and visited the sphinx and the pyramids. Here Charnichael, wearing a fez, sits on his camel amid ruins of buildings dating back before Christ on Christmas Day, 1942.

Harvill outdoors

By Donald Harvill

By DONALD HARVILL
The salt water fishing in our area has about had it, except for some specks being caught trolling. I guess about all the salt water fisherman can do now is to think about all the fishing that he will be doing next year.

SEASONS GREETINGS
At Buccaneer Park we're wishing all of our friends a great Christmas and a greater New Year. So many local residents and merchants have given us help far beyond what was expected. We hope to continue a long, mutually beneficial relationship with all of the Mississippi coastal area.

BIRD FEEDING PROGRAM
Speaking of helpers from the coastal area, a new program is beginning at the Park. Every Tuesday a contingent of students from the Silver Creek Day Care School in Pass Christian will come to the park to feed the birds. We have four bird feeding stations for which the students will prepare and distribute the food. This is one of their projects through which they'll earn a junior park ranger certificate and patch. We are very grateful for their help.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS
Our flower arranging class met last Friday. Members brought their wreaths - and some pretty ones they were. They also collected pine boughs, wax myrtle and groundsel tree with which they made Christmas decorations in little clay pots. The class will not meet on Dec. 30. Instead, on Jan. 6 we'll meet - our project being arrangements with a New Year theme.

BASKETRY
The basketry class is coming along fine. Even I can do this craft. It's very simple and very inexpensive and very much fun. We have room for more members and TV on Wednesday nights isn't so great anyway. Get out of that television watching rut and come socialize while you learn a viable craft.

EXERCISE CLASS
If Tuesday's TV bores you - come to our ladies exercise class at 5:30 p.m. It's great to get outdoors - even in this cold weather - for just a 20-minute walk. You know, the most fun in all these classes is getting to meet new friends. In my exercise class I found out I used to live five blocks from one of the members when we both lived in New Orleans. But we both had to come 50 miles to meet! And, once again we live within a few blocks of each other.

where you can find clear water.
The best fresh water fishing seems to be coming from around the Pearl River.

The primitive arms season closed Wednesday. I haven't heard of any deer being killed with primitive arms. I did hear of a boy killing a deer with a bow, but I don't know the details.

The second segment of the deer season opens the day after Christmas, Monday, Dec. 26. The second season usually proves to be the better for deer, at least for my clan it is. The reason for the second season being the better is because the bucks are starting to rut and they lose some of their wariness. In case some of you don't know it already there is a deer a day limit this year. But don't think that this might hurt the deer population, it's hard enough to just kill one a season!

ANSLEY - There hasn't been too much salt water fishing, not much green trout fishing either. We have small live mullet for bait as well as frozen shrimp. The water is just too messed up. (Bobby Little, LaFrance's Fishing Camp)

BAY ST. LOUIS - There has been no fishing news, no hunting news either. The water and weather conditions are too messed up. (Carl Gustafson Sr., Sportsmans Paradise)

PEARLINGTON - Several customers went fishing and caught some nice bass. The water is just right, real pretty. The tide is still low in the day. (Roy Baxter, Pearl River Marina)

JOE'S BAYOU - Not too much fishing. The water is real good and clear. We've been having average tides. The trolling is still good in the river. We have frozen bait. (Mrs. Allie Cospelich)

KILN - There hasn't been too much fishing news. A few people went fishing but I didn't hear of anything being caught. The water is good and clear. We have live minnows and worms, but no shrimp. There have been some coons killed lately. Archie Cuevas and friend have killed eight the last two weeks. (Andy Ladner, Andy's Bait Shop, at Kiln Supermarket)

BAYOU CADDY - The fishing hasn't been good, not many people fishing. The Pearl River has everything messed up, even the oysters. The oysters are fat but are too fresh. (Wilford Bordage, Bordages Bros. Marina)

Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Thanks, good friends, for letting us get to know you. Have a very merry Christmas!

Hancock Bank gives dividends with greetings

Leo W. Seal, Jr., president of Hancock Bank, announced payment of the bank's quarterly dividend and the addition of an extra dividend to bank stockholders on Dec. 15.

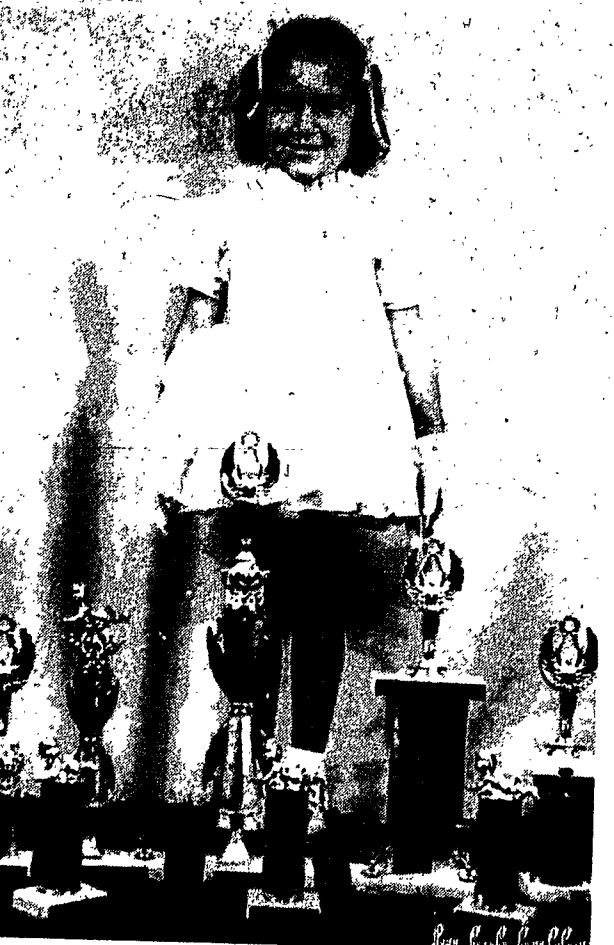

A message to stockholders, signed by Donald E. Sutter, chairman of the board of directors, T. W. Milner, Jr., vice chairman, and Seal, jointly expressed seasons greetings and best wishes for the New Year on behalf of the directors, officers and staff of Hancock Bank.

"Your bank experienced another good year in earnings and deposit growth," the message continued, "and it is most pleasing to enclose these two dividend checks. One is your quarterly dividend of 35-cents per share, the other an 'extra' for 65-cents. These, with those declared earlier, bring the total dividends paid for the year to $2.05 per share. We thank you for your continuing friendship and confidence."
